Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription,

Is not a secret or patent medicine, against which the most intelligent people are quite naturally averse because of the uncertainty as to their harmless character, but is a medicine OF KNOWN COMPOSITION, a full list of all its ingredients being printed, in plain English, on every bottle wrapper. An examination of this list of ingredients will disclose the fact that it is non-alcoholic in its composition, chemically pure glycerine taking the place of the commonly used alcohol, in its make-up. The "Favorite Prescription" of Dr. Pierce is in fact the only medicine put up for the cure of woman's peculiar weaknesses and ailments, sold through druggists, that does not contain alcohol and that too in large quantities. Furthermore, it is the only medicine for woman's special diseases, the ingredients of which have the unanimous endorsement of all the leading medical writers and teachers of all the several schools of practice, and that too as remedies for the ailments for which "Favorite Prescription" is recommended.

A little book of some of these endorsements will be sent to any address, postpaid, and absolutely free if you request same by postal card or letter, of Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Don't forget that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, for woman's weaknesses and delicate ailments, is not a patent or secret medicine, being the "Favorite Prescription" of a regularly educated and graduated physician, engaged in the practice of his chosen specialty—that of diseases of women—that its ingredients are printed in plain English on every bottle-wrapper; that it is the only medicine especially designed for the cure of woman's diseases that contains no alcohol, and the only one that has a professional endorsement worth more than all the so-called "testimonials" ever published for other medicines. Send for these endorsements as above. They are free for the asking.

If you suffer from periodical, headache, backache, dizziness, pain or dragging down sensation low down in the abdomen, weak back, have disagreeable and weakening, catarrhal, pelvic drain, or are in distress from being long on your feet, then you may be sure of benefit from taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets the best laxative and regulator of the bowels. They invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. One a laxative; two or three a cathartic.

Exploded Bomb at Cafe.

A bomb was exploded in front of the Cafe Aragno, in the center of Rome yesterday. The fashionable throngs at the cafe were thrown into confusion, and one man was seriously wounded. The perpetrator of the deed was not apprehended.

At the time of the explosion the cafe was filled with fashionable people, and the Corso was crowded with the regular afternoon promenaders. A double line of carriages stretched in front of the place. Immediately after the explosion a thick cloud of smoke filled the air, and there was a strong odor of chemicals. The people in and about the cafe were panic-stricken. They made frantic efforts to escape in the fear that the ceilings and walls of the cafe were about to collapse, and tables and chairs were overthrown in the mad scramble to get away. Women screamed and fainted. The large plate glass windows of the cafe were shattered

In speaking of the occurence one of those present said he saw a young man about twenty-five years old come to the cafe and take a seat at a table outside. He carried a handbag which was partially concealed by a light overcoat on his arm. He deposited the handbag and his coat on a chair at his side, and ordered something to drink. Before the waiter could serve him the young man suddenly rose, and saying, "I have forgotten something," hurried away, leaving his handbag and overcoat behind,

This sudden disappearance caused suspicion, and a young man who had been sitting near the stranger sprang to his feet and cried "Bomb! Bomb!"

This warning, however, was too late to give the crowd time to get away, for the explosion came on the heels of his last words.

The neighborhood of the cafe was immediately occupied by police. The wounded man's name is Guido Morni, who returned here two weeks ago from New York. He was taken to a hospital, and probably will be all right in a fortnight.

The bomb was of chemical composition. It contained several pounds of nails and metal balls. The perpetrator of the deed is supposed to be an anarchist, and the theory is advanced that he attempted to blow up the cafe out of revenge for the anarchists having been prevented from demonstrating last Sunday in commemoration of the hanging of the Chicago anarchists nineteen years ago.

Santos Dumont Optomistic.

Santos-Dumont, since the successful flight of his aeroplane, "The Bird of Prey," in Paris talks enthusiastically of the early approach of the day when all mankind will be navigating the air and when flying machines will be more common that automobiles. Indeed, he thinks that the flying machine will eventually become the "poor man's automobile," be safer, faster, and cheaper. He says:

"The machine I am experimenting with is very large, having a surface of eighty square meters, but the practical aeroplane, which will be for the air what the democratic bicycle is for the earth, will be much smaller. With ordinary flying machines it is necessary to increase the size in order to increase the power. With the aeroplane, on the contrary, the speed will be increased in direct proportion to the diminution of the resisting surface. We can look forward to a practical aeroplane which can be comfortably housed in every home. From the standpoint of maintenance, the cost both of petroleum and repairs, the aeroplane will be much less expensive than the auto-car. There will be no expensive tires to burst and no bad roads to jolt them to pieces. There will be no collisions, Next year people will be able to go to the seashore on the aeroplanes. It will become the fad and the commencement of a new industry."

Disappearance of Bridegroom.

When guests were assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Myers, of Avoca, Iowa, yesterday afternoon, to witness the marriage of their daughter, Miss Christiana Myers, to Frederick Gleason, Gleason failed to appear, and has not been seen since or heard of by any one there. Miss Myers and Gleason have long been social leaders at Avoca. All the wealthy and fashionable people of the city were invited to the wedding, and had assembled at the home of Miss Myers' parents in response to the invitations, when it came to light that Gleason had disappeared. When he was not to be found the guests were dismissed. Miss Myers who was attired in her wedding gown and surrounded by her bridemaids, was prostrated with grief and placed under the care of a physician. Gleason left no trace behind him, and his disappearance and the cause of it are alike shrouded in mystery.

I regard Dr. King's New Discovery as the most wonderful medicine in existence." Surest Cough and Cold cure and Throat and Lung healer. Guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, Druggists, 50c and $1. THE DINING-ROOM is used oftener than almost any other room in the house. That is why it should be made the most comfortable spot, and be pleasingly arranged.

Without cut glass and silverware a dining room makes little impression and is hardly home like. A few pieces tastily arranged will make a better effect than many of them placed indiscriminately

A silver fern dish puts a finish to the table and livens up the room. A silver set is needed to decorate the sideboard. A few cut glass pieces so arranged as to contrast with the tea set will make the sideboard as it should be. The cut glass required are decanters, berry bowls and fruit dishes. The only other silver piece that should be in evidence is the candelabra.

If you want your dining room to be just so have the bread trays and other trays of silver. Even the crumb tray and scraper should be silver-plated.

The steel knives should have silver-plated handles to match the silver-plated spoons, knives and forks.

If you are not satisfied unless your dining-room is properly fitted, you are undoubtedly particular about your own person. It is just as well that you are. A little attention to your own self begets attention from others. Wear a diamond ring or two, a locket, watch and chain. As the chain is more in evidence than the watch or the locket, you may as well wear the best there is—the guaranteed Z-K Gold Chain.

Let us fit out the dining-room as well as yourself. Prices very reasonable.

AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

THURSDAY EVENING, NOV. 15, 1906.

THE REIGN of lawlessnes in Pittsburg, Pa., and vicinity continues, and hundreds of police, city detectives, county detectives and private agencies are apparently still unable to stop the depredations which are almost hourly reported to them. With the past 12 hours the list shows a greater number than any like period since the "epidemic" began. The following are some of the incidents in the reign of terror: Two murders committed while robberies were in progress. Three burglaries with hauls of over $5,000 each. Several holdups in principal streets in daylight. Five brutal assaults during hold-ups, several of the victims dying. Seven hold-ups at points of revolvers in residence districts. Twenty-five robberies or hold-ups reported Tuesday night. Score of similar outbreaks occurred last night. It seems that the world, in some respects, is retrograding and that conditions in large cities show no improvement] upon those prevailing two or three centuries ago. In the days of Dick Turpin, Jonathan Wild, Jack Sheppard and other outlaws but few persons had the temerity to appear on the streets of London after dark. In our day with brilliantly illuminated streets and modern police forces, murders, robberies and assaults are becoming so common that many, especially females, who are compelled to appear on the streets after dark, often move with fear and trembling.

IN THE course of his address before the one hundred and twenty-third annual convention of the Protestant Episcopal Diocese of New York yesterday Bishop Porter spoke in a vein which suggested that he had in mind cases such as that of Rev. Dr. A. S. Crapsey, of Rochester, N. Y., who is under charges of heresy. The Bishop said that a man in holy orders who rejects, for example, the doctrine of the divinity of Christ, or that of his miraculous birth, "has no place in the ministry of his church," and that "if it is his office (as he may easily believe that it is) to emancipate the church from so gross a superstition, then he must do so from without and not from within, for it is impossible, in the minds of people who hold fast to the principles of common honesty to respect either the consistency or the integrity of one who eats the church's bread, accepts the church's dignities, enjoys the church's honors and impugns the church's faith." All right-thinking people will agree with Bishop Potter.

PEOPLE MAKE many excuses for not attending church, but Dr. F. E. Daniel of Austin, Texas, has furnished this class with one more potent than all others. The doctor is president of the American International Congress of Tuberculois, now in session in New York. In his annual address, among other things, he said:

Unnatural living in cities is a productive cause of consumption. Whisky and consumption follow the flag and the Bible in the march of civilization. Public places not sanitarily cared for are breeding places for the disease. Churches are veritable 'black holes of Calcutta' among the liveliest disease breeders. I attend a church where, according to my calculation, the same air was breathed and rebreathed by each of the 500 members of the congregation every 12 minutes, or 12 times in the course of the service.

A NEW investigation is progressing in the course of developments in the San Francisco graft scandal. It now appears that many sums of money, large and small, and aggregating $1,000,000, that were sent from different States to San Francisco for the relief of the sufferers from the earthquake calamity, never reached the relief committee. Some of these amounts were mailed to the care of Mayor Schmitz, the socialist mayor. The charge upon which a number of officials and citizens will be called upon to defend themselves is the alleged theft of funds sent to the city for the relief of the earthquake sufferers. Such a state of affairs is dreadful and is calculated to deter many charitable people from attempting to aid the suffering lest thieves get the money intended for the poor.

AS THE result of the passage of the railroad rate bill, the cadets of the military and naval academies, who have heretofore been transported by the railroad companies to the annual football game between these two schools without charge, will in the future have to pay their own fares. The War Department, after a full investigation, holds that it is illegal for the offer to be tendered or accepted. This may put a stop to the annual game.

THE FIRST snow of the season fell today, November 15th, and according to an old tradition there will be fifteen snows during the winter.

Despite the vigilance of the police a fire fiend tried to burn two more tenements in New York early today. The blazes were discovered in the letter boxes of two flat houses on West Thirty-sixth street. They were extinguished before any damage was done.

From Washington.

Washington, Nov. 15.

The growing use of canned foods so marked in domestic commerce is quite as noticeable in the foreign trade of the United States. According to the Department of Commerce and Labor, the exportation of canned foods during the fiscal year ended July, 1906, amounted to 18 million dollars' worth, an increase of over 60 per cent in ten years. Temperate zone people, traveling or living in the tropics and the Orient, demand animal food, which is very scarce in the tropical countries, and vegetables which are grown in temperate zones. Besides this there has been a marked increase in the demand for canned standard foods, such as beef, pork, salmon and fruits from European countries. Of canned fruits the United Kingdom is by far the largest consumer.

The Currency Commission of the American Bankers' Association has agreed upon the principles to be incorporated in the bill to be introduced in Congress, which will provide for a more elastic currency. The Commission will give out a statement at 4 o'clock this afternoon. The bill will be drafted by A. R. Hepburn, New York; J. B. Forgan, Chicago and John L. Hamilton, Hoopeston, Ill. This committee will get to work at once. It has been agreed to tax the banks five per cent on their issue to provide a contingent fund and in addition there will be a guaranty fund which will be used to take care of the notes of failed banks.

Lieut. Gen. Nelson A. Miles, has just arrived in this city after a three months trip abroad. Speaking this morning of the death of Gen. Shafter Gen. Miles said: "His death is a matter of deep regret to me both because of his splendid career as a military officer and because of his personality." General Miles denied that there was any feeling on his part at the time because of the fact that Gen. Shafter was assigned to command the first army of Cuban invasion during the Spanish-American war. He said: "Naturally, I desired to go to Cuba myself at the beginning so as to be on the ground. But they would not let me."

All of the correspondence between the British foreign office and Whitelaw Reid, the United States Ambassador, leading up to the agreement on the modus vivendi to govern this season's fishing by Americans in Newfoundland waters, has been made public by the State Department in a pamphlet. The correspondence shows that the British government is committed to the enforcement of the modus and to the protection of the American fishermen in their rights of purse seining in Newfoundland waters this season and if the Newfoundland government objects its quarrel it will be with the home government in London.

The arrival of the President off Colon six hours earlier than scheduled is delighting naval officers here. The trip was made in just 133 hours, an average speed of 13 8-10ths knots. They attribute the record wholly to the President's desire to "get there" quick.

Senator and Mrs. Platt Separate.

Daniel DeWolfe Weaver, of the law firm of Marsh, Winslow & Weaver, New York, who have represented Mrs. Thomas C. Platt in the recent marital difficulties between her and her husband, Senator Platt, handed out for publication yesterday the following statement:

"Owing to unhappy differences between them, the undersigned have this day executed a deed of separation. While making such announcement, we wish to assert, with all possible emphasis, the falsity of the scandalous articles which have lately appeared in the public prints. While there have been a series of differences and disputes which seem to make a separation advisable, there has been no conduct on the part of either which could possibly be the foundation of a divorce action. No question of the infidelity of either to the other has ever been raised. Statements which have charged violent and disgraceful scenes between us or other improprieties upon the part of either of us are absolutely false.

"T. C. PLATT,
"LILLIAN T. PLATT."

"Dated New York, November 12, 1906.

In signing the separation papers it is said Senator and Mrs. Platt did not meet. Mrs. Platt went to the offices of her lawyers, and Senator Platt went to the office of Judge Hatch.

The negotiations were conducted between the two offices. Mrs. Platt, it was said, first signed the papers, and the agreement was taken to Judge Hatch's office, and signed by the Senator. At the suggestion of Judge Hatch all hands agreed to make no further statement than simply the making public of the agreement.

Bible Society Condemned.

Amid the deepest feeling and highest excitement the Baptist General Convention in Richmond yesterday morning adopted a report condemning the American Bible Society as unfair to the Baptists. In the debate it was charged that the American Bible Society insulted the Baptists by refusing to circulate among Asiatic people a translation of the Bible in which the Greek word "baptizo" was rendered "dip" instead of "sprinkle" and further by circulating a Bible in China in which the word "baptizo" was translated "wash," "bathe" or "cleanse," instead of "dip" as required by the fundamental principle of Baptist belief. Finally, when quiet was restored sufficiently to put the question, the report was adopted by an overwhelming majority.

Youngstown, O., Nov. 15.—The vote taken by the Brotherhood of Firemen on the Mahoning division of the Erie Railroad, is practically unanimous in favor of authorizing Grand Master Hannahan to declare a strike if in his judgment it should be deemed advisable. There is a strong feeling that a strike will be averted by an amicable settlement.

Leaving his bride of six months, who lay asleep after a vigil of many days over her husband, Dr. Robert C. Craig, a young Pittsburg physician, went to the bathroom of an Atlantic City boarding house at daylight yesterday and sent a bullet through his heart. The act was the result of melancholia following nervous breakdown, and no investigation will be made.

Unless, as a result of the presentation to Congess of the report to be made to the President by Dr. North and his colleagues who have gone to Germany to study the tariff situation, some definite and lasting agreement is reached between the United States and Germany, the government at Berlin will sureley put in force on June 7 next her maximum tariff on goods imported into Germany from the United States replacing the minimum rates now in effect.

Mrs. Charles Mowry, aged twenty-one years, and her three children—Homer, aged six years, Louise, aged three years, and a baby of six months—were burned to death early yesterday in their home on a farm at Batavia Station, six miles southeast of Coldwater, Mich., on the Lake Shore Railroad. Carl Hau, a member of the faculty of George Washington University, Washington, who is being held in London, charged with murder, was remanded for another week at a hearing in the Bow Street Station in London, yesterday. The papers in his case have not arrived from Baden-Baden, and the case will have to continue until the German authorities make their appearance. Hau is charged with the murder of his mother, in-law, Frau Molitor, in Baden-Baden, on the night of November 6. The American people have taken such an interest in the case that when it is finally called for a hearing the American Embassy will have a representative there.

THE PRESIDENT AT COLON.

The first trip of an American President outside of the boundaries of the United States was successfully concluded yesterday afternoon at 1:30, when the battleship Louisiana, having on board President Roosevelt and his party, dropped anchor in the harbor of Colon. The Louisiana, which arrived ahead of scheduled time, was convoyed by the Tennessee and the Washington. The three vessels anchored about a mile from the dock during a heavy rainfall.

Owing to the fact that the Louisiana arrived ahead of time, neither President Amador, of Panama, nor Chairman Shonts, of the Isthmian Canal Commission, was on hand to welcome President Roosevelt. They left Panama at 4:30 in a special train for Colon, and at 8:30 last night boarded the Louisiana and extended a cordial greeting to American's Chief Executive. In President Amador's party, beside Mr. Shonts, were Chief Engineer Stevens and Executive Secretary Reed, of the commission, and Mr. Squiers, the American minister to Panama.

During the afternoon President Roosevelt received the local newspaper correspondents on board the Louisiana. He said that his voyage had been pleasant and uneventful, and expressed himself as gratified at the welcome which the citizens of the isthmus had prepared for his landing today. He stated that he proposed to look into the Jamacian labor question, and also intended to see everything possible concerning the canal.

Extensive precautions have been taken to protect President Roosevelt during his three-day visit on the isthmus, and it is reported that a number of known anarchists have been arrested at Colon or at Panama. All steamers arriving at the isthmus are inspected and suspicious characters have been imprisoned and will be held in custody until President Rossevelt departs.

Within the past few days four known anarchists are reported to have been arrested on landing at Colon or Panama.

The special grand jury of Richmond investigating complaints against local barrooms yesterday reported: "We are of the opinion from the testimony before us that all-night barrooms is a menace to the morals, as well as to the peace and wellbeing of our community and should be remedied. We are of the opinion that if our City Councils would pass an ordinance closing all barrooms at not later than 12 o'clock at night the nuisances complained of by responsible citizens of the neighborhood of such places would, in a large measure, be abated and the criminal docket of our city much lessened."

THE R., F. & P. R. R.

In view of the fact that the Pennsylvania Railroad Company has evinced an intention of placing the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac directly under the control of a Pennsylvania official, and making it a subsidiary line to the great Cassatt system, it is interesting to know that the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac has of late years grown from a small plum to a very large and rich one, ripe for plucking by even as great and wealthy corporation as the "Penny system."

On Monday the annual meeting of the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac will be held in Richmond, and there will be read the report of the company for the last fiscal year. This report, which has not yet been made public, will show a wonderful increase in the profits for the year, exceeding the previous prosperous years by something like twenty per cent., a state of affairs that may well attract the attention of Philadelphia railway financiers.

Not content with this wonderful advance, the operation of the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac since the last fiscal year up to the present time shows increased earnings of something like twenty per cent. over the statement that will be made Monday.

The road has never been in such excellent condition, for the double tracking has now been practically completed, and the earning power is steadily increasing.

The State officials who are guarding the large interests of the Commonwealth in the road, as well as the private stockholders, are viewing with disquiet the rumored plans of the Pennsylvania Railroad to gain absolute control of the road, which would make it possible to divert the earnings of the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac into the Pennsylvania treasury by means of all manner of terminal charges, freight-yard expenses and through freight tariff rates. In view of all these conditions the meeting on Monday promises to be exceedingly interesting.—[Richmond-Times Dispatch.

The State corporation commission yesterday appointed the following proxies to represent and vote the State's stock in the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Railroad Company at their annual meeting on Monday: A. L. Holladay, of Hanover; John B. Purcell, of Richmond; J. E. Broadus, of Henrico; Henry M. Tyler, of Caroline (?); E. D. Cole, of Fredericksburg; C. Lee Moore, of Alexandria.

Today's Telegraphic News

After the Oil Trust.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 15.—The federal government has begun its long contemplated battle against the oil trust. In papers filed this morning in the U. S. Circuit Court at St. Louis, by direction of Attorney General Moody, the government seeks to have the gigantic trust dissolved. In support of its plea it presents an array of violations of the Sherman anti-trust law, which includes conspiracy, coercion, intimidation, rebating and lesser but wholly vicious acts and practices.

The bill filed by the Attorney General reviews the history of the Standard Oil company from 1,870 down to the present day from the time when it was "a simple conspiracy" to its formation as a holding company under the laws of New Jersey with an aggregate capital now of over $150,000,000, and controlling more than 90 per cent of the oil business in the United States.

The total value of all property controlled by the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey, except such as may have been purchased, is $69,020,798, according to their own valuation. It is declared that upon this capital the Standard has from 1882 to 1895 inclusive paid $512,940,084 dividends and has created a large surplus. From 1882 to 1896 its acknowledges surplus was over seventy nine million dollars. It is alleged that its property at the present time exceeds the value of $200,000,000. Its annual dividends during the last nine years have run from 33 to 48 per cent in addition to the surplus.

It is reported in Findlay, Ohio, that the Standard Oil officers recently indicted have left the State to avoid arrest.

New York, Nov. 15.—As if to show their indifference to the federal suit brought against the Standard Oil Company, in St. Louis, today, the directors of the oil trust have declared a dividend of ten dollars a share for the quarter. This is a dividend declaration of $10,000,000 and John D.'s share is a little over $6,000,000, enough to get him through the hard winter months. The dividend for the last quarter was six dollars a share.

Count Boni Vanishes.

Paris, Nov. 15.—Count Boni is missing. Caricatured and ridiculed, held up as the joke of Europe, the "noble" ex-husband of Anna Gould has at last been shamed. At his apartments it was stated today that the Count had gone away for a rest. This word was given to a besieging army of creditors and usurers.

Friends today express the belief that Boni's collossal conceit, which has prevented his appreciating public sentiment, has deserted him and that, conscious of the spectacle he has made of himself, he has deserted Paris. Others are of the opinion that he is still dodging creditors. Every one is expecting Madame Gould to quit Paris soon. The only string to her divorce victory was that she could not take her children from the country without permission of their father or the court. In this condition are foreseen future sensational developments.

Countess Anna (or Madame Gould, as she will now be known) has never liked Paris. The recent sensational events have only served to itensify her dislike. If possible she would undoubtedly take her boys post haste to America, but the Count is not expected to be quick to let go his one remaining connection with the Gould millions—his children. There is already speculation as to how soon Boni's financial straights will become such that he will name his price—sell his boys to their mother, and permit her to take them from France. She realizes that her boys are members of the French nobility, citizens of France, and as such are amenable to military duty. For that reason it is probable that the government would object to having the boys taken permanently from the country. That the possibility of the mother kidnapping her boys is appreciated by the government was shown this afternoon, when it was reported that secret service men were watching the Castellane palace.

Testimony Against Gillette.

Herkimer, N. Y., Nov. 15.—Damaging testimony against Chester E. Gillette charged with the murder of Grace Brown who was drowned in Big Moose Lake, after going out rowing with Gillette last summer, have been unearthed by the prosecution. Witnesses have been found who will testify that Gillette and Grace Brown had a bitter quarrel the day she was drowned. Grace Greenwood, a waitress at the Cliff House, is ready to testify that Gillette and Miss Brown quarrelled there. Miss Greenwood says that at supper, the night the pair arrived at Big Moose lake, the girl did not speak to Gillette until he called her a name for not eating. "I am doing the best I can under the circumstances," Miss Brown replied.

Miss Greenwood said the couple were nervous and distraught. At breakfast, Miss Greenwood said, the girl's eyes were red and bruises showed over her forhead. Gillette swore at her under his breath and made some remarks which made the girl turn pale. Miss Greenwood said there was a violent quarrel, but she would not tell what words Gillette used until on the witness stand. Miss Greenwood said that after breakfast the couple took the 'bus and went to the lake. The examination of talesmen was continued today in an effort to fill the jury box.

The Platt Case.

New York, Nov. 15.—Mrs. Thomas C. Platt is today the wife of New York's senior Senator in name only, and the romance of the aged lover and his young darling is over. Documents of permanent separation have been signed. The dashing Mrs. Platt, formerly Mrs. Lillian E. Janeway, remains in possession of Tioga Lodge, at Highland Mills, and is assured of an income of $10,000. The easy boss is at the Hotel Gotham, and this winter will take up his old quarters at the Hotel Arlington, in Washington. Senator Platt is feeble and worn and is able to move about only with great difficulty. Mrs. Platt was the widow of Dr. Theodore Janeway, of Washington. After the death of her husband, Mrs. Janeway became a clerk in a government department. This was after Senator Platt had first met her. Not long after the death of Mrs. Platt, in 1901, Mrs. Janeway moved into apartments near the Arlington Hotel, where Senator Platt lived. They were seen much in each other's company. Two years later, in 1903, Senator Platt and Mrs. Janeway were married in this city, despite the opposition of the Senator's three sons.

Georgetown, Nov. 15.—Wheat 65a73.

Conditions in Pittsburg.

Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 15.—Pittsburg is today more than ever at the mercy of the thugs, robbers and murderers who have terrorized its inhabitants for two months. The bandits have responded to the efforts of the authorities to apprehend them by the appointing of additional officers, offering rewards, and appointing a vigilance committee, by fresh outrages. Last night and the preceding night were record breakers.

A score of burglaries, hold-ups, and attempted robberies took place last night. The police are powerless seemingly. The murder of Firth Smith in his own home by a robber has shown that citizens are not safe even when within doors. Few men or women venture out at night unarmed.

In the last few days scores of arrests have been made. In several instances the prisoners have been identified as well known crooks. But the wholesale arrests have profited nothing. Many citizens lay the blame for the reign of terror and crime to the lax methods of dealing with criminals in Allegheny, just across the river from the larger city. They have made it their headquarters for planning operations elsewhere. The police, however, lay the blame on outsiders who, they say, have invaded the city in large numbers.

Incident Closed.

New York, Nov. 15.—The threatened international complications owing to the invasion of the French Consulate by policeman John Anglin, who tried to arrest M. Alcide Ebray, French Consul General, on complaint of the scrub-lady of the building in which the consulate is located, that he insulted her, is closed. Anglin who was arraigned on charges for having violated treaty rights by invading the consulate, was exonerated by Third Deputy Police Commissioner Mathot, today. Incidentally, the police commissioner made an important ruling that a treaty does not carry immunity from arrest for an attache of a foreign government for a crime. The consulate, however, cannot be entered to make an arrest. Mayor McClellan has already apologized to M. Ebray so the matter will rest unless the scrub-lady, Mrs. Nunziata, carries out a threat to sue M. Ebray for damages for the alleged insult.

Origin of Consumption.

New York, Nov. 15.—"Whisky and consumption follow the American flag and the Bible." This was the statement with which Dr. F. E. Daniel, of Austin, Texas, electrified the international congress on tuberculosis which is meeting today, to devise means for enlisting the aid of the federal government in fighting the white plague. In his opening address Dr. Daniel said: "Consumption is not contagious, but it is communicative. One does not contract the disease by contact with a patient. The disease is not hereditary. A feeble constitution liable to any disease may be inherited, but tuberculosis was never transmitted congenitally from parent to child."

Roosevelt Spelling Rejected.

New York Nov. 15.—Simplified spelling has received another blow at the hands of a committee of the Board of Education. After a long investigation the committee has recommended that the list of 300 words approved by President Roosevelt shall not be adopted in the public schools. To do so would be an unwarranted proceeding on the part of the Board, it says. A decision in the matter will be rendered in a week.

Storm Warning.

New York, Nov. 15.—A special warning sent out from the Weather Bureau at Washington, reads: "Northeast storm warning at 10 a. m., from Delaware Breakwater to New York. Storm is near Hatteras, N. C., moving northeast with increasing intensity. Brisk to high northeast to northwest winds this afternoon and tonight, with rain or snow."

Desperado Captured.

Asheville, N. C., Nov. 15.—Armed posses, led by John A. Roebling, the multi-millionaire bridge builder, are ranging the woods today in a hunt for Willis Harris, the negro desperado, who shot and killed five persons Tuesday night. The feeling against Harris is intense and many in Asheville fear a race riot. All saloons have been closed, and armed citizens are patrolling the streets.

The negroes who have deprecated Harris' action and offered to assist in running him down, are keeping off the streets. Everyone on the street is armed.

Roebling and other millionaires are anxious to prevent a lynching. The county offered large rewards for the capture of Harris alive and his conviction in the courts. Harris is believed to be concealed on the Vanderbilt estate, Biltmore.

After shooting two of the posse which had surrounded him in the woods near the little town of Fletcher, near here at noon was killed today. When brought to bay, the negro put up a desperate fight.

Schooner in Distress.

Sandy Hook, N. J., Nov. 15.—A two-masted schooner is in distress off Sandy Hook in a heavy wind and snow storm. The vessel threatens to go ashore and the Long Branch and Deal Beach life saving crews were waiting at eleven o'clock today to make rescues when the schooner strikes the beach. The captain of the schooner is flying the union jack upside down to show that the vessel is unmanageable.

After battling with the winds and seas with her sails torn the schooner was finally swept ashore at Deal Ceach. The crew was rescued. The schooner is the James M. Hall, with fish oil from southern ports.

Uniform Divorce.

The National Congress on Uniform Divorce Laws ended its work in Philadelphia yesterday, after having adopted, with few changes, the entire uniform bill as originally drafted by the committee appointed at the first meeting, held in Washington. The proposed legislation to be submitted to the States will permit divorces for adultery, bigamy, conviction for crime, cruelty, desertion, drunkenness and insanity. The congress favors public hearings.

One of the delegates was Bishop John Shanley, a Catholic, of North Dakota. Bishop Shanley, a believer in the creed of his church, which does not approve of divorce, is one of the five accredited delegates from his State, but the only one present. When the vote was taken he took a frank position on the subject, showing regard for the opinions of his associates. He said: "As a Catholic bishop, I must follow my conscience and vote absolutely 'No.' But there are five delegates for North Dakota, and I am the only one present. Although it is a great violence to my conscience to vote in favor of absolute divorce, let me do a little hair-splitting and divide myself into the other four delegates' personalities, and so, for them and the State of North Dakota, I vote 'Yes.'"

BETTING DECLARED ILLEGAL.

A verdict of guilty in the case of William Davis, the New York bookmaker charged with taking bets on the races at Benning last April in violation of the gambling law of the District of Columbia, was rendered in Criminal Court No. 1 in Washington yesterday afternoon. The fate of bookmaking as it has been conducted at Benning within the last few years was decided and the verdict of guilty means that the fall racing meeting, which begins on Friday at Benning and lasts until December 1, will be a tame affair where no bookmaking or betting will be allowed. The sentence yesterday of two hours in jail, as judge Stafford announced, was only a nominal one, because the case was a test one and the judge merely gave a nominal sentence. The case was at once appealed to the Court of Appeals and Davis gave bail.

The law provides a penalty of five years in the penitentiary and a fine. In view of the verdict of guilty today, it is not likely that any bookmaker will run the risk of such a sentence, by making books at Benning during the coming meeting. The sporting fraternity and officials of the Jockey Club relied upon a verdict of acquital in view of the decision of Justice Bradley in the Klein case that the law passed by Congress did not apply to Benning, but Justice Stafford in his charge to the jury overruling the motion to acquit, held otherwise, and decided that under the Miller case, which went to the Court of Appeals, and was sustained, that the setting up and carrying on bookmaking in any way was the setting up of a gambling table and came under the law. After this decision the defense, to expedite an appeal to the Court of Appeals, consented to the rendition of a verdict of

Just how far-reaching the decision is regarded by the club was indicated in the following statement given out for publication last night by S. T. Walton, secretary of the club.

"The meeting of the Washington Jockey Club, scheduled to commence on Friday next, will be carried through according to programme. While bookmaking has, by the decision of the court, been declared illegal, betting between individuals is not a punishable offense. The Washington Jockey Club will strictly carry out the court's decision in the matter pending the settlement of the question on final appeal."

Secretary Walton added that certain kinds of betting had been carried on upon the grounds of the club since 1899 upon authority of a decision of Judge Bradley of the Supreme Court of the District. The decision yesterday only went to the manner of betting heretofore prevailing.

It was held to be no offense, he added, for a person to make bets, that for this purpose he might have a sheet or programme and even a number in his hat, although he might not have a fixed place assigned him in which to do business.

District Attorney Baker will issue a statement this afternoon defining what can be done as "individuals" in making a bet. For instance a man can go to anyone, accept the odds offered verbally and make a bet. But the bookmaker cannot use any paraphernalia whatever, nor can there be sheetwriters who record the bet. Immediately the bet is recorded the law is violated. In fact it is man to man, depending on each person's honesty to carry out the obligation, excepting that you can lawfully give the person you are betting with the amount you care to bet.

Southern Methodists.

The one hundred and twenty-fourth annual session of the Virginia conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church South convened yesterday in Monumental Church, Portsmouth, with Bishop E. R. Hendrix in the chair. Dr. Paul Whitehead was unanimously elected secretary of the conference, and he appointed S. S. Lambeth and George F. Green his assistants. Rev. J. W. Cooper secured recognition at this point, and stated that since Dr. Whitehead had been elected secretary of the Virginia Conference for 50 consecutive years, his brothers had desired to present him a loving cup, in recognition of his long, faithful and efficient service, and requested Dr. S. S. Lambeth to make the presentation.

A communication was received from the Presbyterian Synod of Virginia asking that the Virginia Conference appoint a committee to act in connection with a committee from that body to make arrangements for evangelical services at the Jamestown Exposition. The request was referred to a committee.

A. L. Franklin and Charles H. Green, superannuates, applied for restoration to active relations, and action on the case of Columbus S. Wamely was deferred. The following names were referred for the supernumerary relation: William H. Cowper, Edw. L. Pell, J. M. Burton, Eugene J. Potts.

Three ministers of the conference will be transferred to other states—Rev. W. B. Beauchamp, who goes to Louisville, Ky.; Rev. C. H. McGhee, who goes to the Indian Territory, and Rev. B. M. Beckham, who goes to Nashville, Tenn., to teach in the mission school there.

Two of the presiding elders must be changed at this Conference—Rev. J. T. Whitely, of the Rappahannock district, and Rev. J. C. Reed, of the Lynchburg district.

Will Appeal.

Mr. James E. Clements who, with Mr. Basil Buteler, defended Joseph Thomas, colored, alias Wright, in his recent trial in Alexandria county when he was sentenced to be hanged December 14, is preparing the papers necessary to have the case taken before the Court of Appeals on an application for a writ of error. Mr. Clements has until December 1 to file his motion. He will ask for a writ of error and for a new trial, on these grounds: First—That the verdict was contrary to the law and the evidence. Second—That no time was allowed by the trial court for argument on a motion for a new trial and the court proceeded at once to sentence the prisoner to be hanged. Third—That illegal and incompetent testimony was admitted at the trial. Fourth—That evidence favorable to the prisoner has been secured since the trial. Fifth—That the prosecutrix failed properly to identify the accused and the accused established an alibi. Sixth—That there was no proof beyond a reasonable doubt that Miss Risley was assaulted.

Mr. Clements comments on what he terms Mr. Mackey's usurpation of the sheriff's sole duty in conducting the hanging of Wright, and says he had not heretofore understood that it was a part of the duty of a commonwealth's attorney to personally assist in hanging a man he had prosecuted, and appear persistently in print touching this Wright case in all its details.

Personal.

The weekly teas given by the ladies of the Golf Club have been discontinued for the season.

Mrs. M. W. O'Brien is the guest of Mr. E. A. Evans, 2200 Park avenue, Richmond.

Mr. W. A. Leonhardt, formerly an employee of the Southern Railway and for a time a resident of this city, but now a resident of Seattle, Wash., is visiting this city after an absence of about sixteen years. Mr. Leonhardt is now a conductor on the Northern Pacific Railroad.

Dr. Julian T. Miller, U. S. N., now stationed at Norfolk is in the city on a short visit to relatives.

Mr. L. F. Hayden and Miss Annie Robey, both of this city, were married in Washington today.

Vagabond Blacks.

Eighteen negroes—fifteen women and three men—were in the dock in the Police Court this morning charged with vagrancy and indecent conduct. They had been found in well known resorts on Princess street, between Fairfax and Royal, at 3 o'clock this morning. Most of the prisoners are patrons of the Police Court and some had recently been arraigned on similar charges since the murder of Thomas Elzey, colored, in that neighborhood. The accused made the usual statements when asked to explain their presence in the resorts at such an hour. Some said they worked half-days, others two or three days in the week and a few asserted that they had been sick. One of the men was sent to jail for 20 days and the others fined $5 each. Two of the women were dismissed, one had her case continued and the others were fined $5 each.

Charters.

Capitol Squab Company (incorporated), Rosslyn, C. B. Story, president; C. B. McKee, secretary; J. B. Smallwood, treasurer, all of Rosslyn. Capital stock: Maximum, $50,000; minimum, $1,000. Objects and purposes: Growing and sale of poultry, pigeons and bees, and cultivation and sale of ginseng and other farm products.

Lorton Telephone Company, Lorton, Incorporators—Howe Totten, president; D. Morgan, William R. Ward, F. H. Elmore, B. O. Holt, all of Fairfax county. Capital stock: Maximum, $50,000; minimum, $1,000. Objects and purposes: Run a telephone line one hundred miles long in counties of Prince William, Fairfax and Alexandria.

Burdened with Responsibility.

Samuel Miller, colored, was arraigned before the Police Court this morning charged with defrauding Wash. Jackson, colored, out of a board bill. In the evidence it was stated that when the accused was told that it was obligatory upon him to settle the bill, Miller said he was unable to do so, as he had five women to support. Jackson in his statement said that Miller had made arrangements to settle the bill, which were satisfactory to him, and the defendant was dismissed.

Another Alarm of Fire.

Shortly after 7 o'clock this morning the steam whistle at the Alexandria Glass Works, adjoining this city on the north, sounded a fire alarm which was followed by the ringing of the city bells. An accident similar to that of yesterday at the same place had caused apprehension. The Reliance engine was soon on the ground and prevented the spread of the fire which had been caused by another break in the glass kiln which had allowed the molten glass to run out.

Will Repeat Comedy Drama.

The Dramatic Club of the Young Men's Sodality Lyceum will repeat the production of the comedy-drama, "The Showman's Ward," at the Opera House in the near future for the benefit of the family of Chas. T. Smith, who was killed on the 20th ultimo. The play was produced in Lyceum Hall last Monday night before a large audience and the success which attended it has induced the club to make arrangements for reproducing it.

Vandalism.

Yesterday morning some one entered the Bachelor Club rooms, on King street, and cut the tips from every billiard cue in the room. No other damage was done. The vandal is known and further developments are awaited.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Samuel Miller, colored, arrested by Officer Smith, charged with defrauding a boarding house, was released, he having made a satisfactory arrangement to settle the bill.

Eighteen negroes—fifteen female and 3 male—arrested by Chief Goods and Officers Smith, Bettis, Ferguson, Arrington and Nicholson and Jail Warden Candler, charged with vagrancy, were arraigned. One of the men was sent to jail for 20 days and the others fined $5 each. Two of the women were dismissed, one had her case continued and the others were fined $5 each.

Rosie Moore, arrested by Officer Nicholson charged with having in her possession a dog belonging to Clarence Ticer, was dismissed upon restoring the animal to its owner.

There was another charge against the Moore woman—that of renting houses for immoral purposes. This case was continued.

James Rowe, colored, arrested by Officers Lyles and Knight charged with contempt of court by failing to appear as a witness, was fined $2.

Application was made for a warrant for the arrest of a man who is charged with failure to support his family.

The Arbiters.

The Southern Railway and its machinists have each chosen an arbitrator to decide the question of rate of wages between the seven-eighths cents per hour advance offered and the two-cent rate demanded. The company selected Alexander Stewart, superintendent of motive power of the system. The men appointed Peter J. Coolon, of Kansas City, first vice-president of the Machinists' Union. The two will select the third arbitrator.

Wintry Weather.

There was a touch of winter in this city and vicinity today. The heavens became obscured early last night, and later light rains fell. Between six and seven o'clock this morning snow (the first of the season) began to fly. It melted as fast as it fell and the flurry was of short duration. It was followed by others about noon. The mercury early this morning stood at 36°, and the weather has been cold during the day.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Fred Lewis, who says he is a Porto Rican, was arrested today charged with stealing a gun from Thomas Willis, at Rock Point, Md.

On Friday, tomorrow, from 4 to 9, p. m. the Girls' Friendly Society of Christ Church will hold in the Parish Hall, a sale of fancy work articles, ice cream, cake, etc.

In the Council proceedings published yesterday it was stated that Officer Nicholson had appeared before the finance committee in reference to the recent murder in this city. It should have been Officer Garvey.

The proprietor of a public house in the western section of the city, some of whose friends spend the day with him, left a door open this morning when the frigid northeast wind caused some of his guests to raise their coat collars and others to shiver. One of the party finally called the boniface's attention to the dog which was curled up on the floor into the shape of a figure 6, and suggested that the penetrating blasts were rendering the cur uncomfortable. The proprietor, slightly ruffled, replied, "It's not the dog you are mindful of—it's your own comfort."

Uniontown, Pa., Nov. 15—An explosion of dynamite kept by an Italian, at Continental No 3 mine last night caused the injury of several persons. Ten persons were in the house. Jim Corta saw a satchel near the grate on fire and threw water on it. It contained dynamite and an explosion followed. The house was wrecked and Corta propably fatally injured.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Nov. 15.—The stock market was feverish and irregular all through the first hour with urgent covering of shorts and heavy London purchases forcing gains, while realizing sales on a large scale filled the demand at times and caused some sharp recessions of the highest price levels. St. Paul was irregular, opening at 183, declined to 181½, then advanced to 183¾, reacted to 182⅝ and rallied to 183. Union Pacific gained 1⅜. Reading was in persistent demand at all times and was one of the strongest stocks of the list.

It does this by regulating the functions and toning up all the Internal female organs to health. It is a pure, specific, reliable, female remedy, with a record of 70 years of success. It has benefited a million others. Why not you? Try it.

THURSDAY EVENING, NOV. 15, 1906.

Monroe Growing Rapidly.

Those who seem to be well posted state that the Southern Railway is preparing to do a large amount of work at Monroe, which will mean much for the early development of that place. Plans, it is said, have been prepared for the company for the erection of forty houses for their employes, which will be rented to them by the company. The company is spending $60,000 on the enlargement of the machine shops, and it is said that the entire force that has been at work in the shops at Alexandria is to be transferred to the Monroe shop as soon as the buildings can be made ready for the removal of the machinery that has not already been moved. An electric light plant is being installed for the purpose of not only lighting all the shops and buildings of the company, but for the purpose of furnishing light in all parts of the big yard. The company is erecting a 300,000 gallon water tank, which will supply the locomotives with water and give fire protection to the company's property. The people of Monroe feel safer now, it is said, than ever before that the Southern has determined to keep its divisional terminals at Monroe, and it is believed that next spring will see the erection there of a large number of homes by railway men who hitherto have been afraid to invest there, feeling that there was too much uncertainty as to the future of the place.—[Lynchburg News.

Married His Stepmother.

H. J. Reitz, a merchant, who lives on a farm near Pikesville, Md., has married his stepmother. He becomes the stepfather-in-law of his five brothers and sisters, and the full-fledged stepfather of his five half-brothers and sisters, the children of his father and bride. Baltimore is trying to figure out just what relation he is to them.

Mr. Reitz, sr., died a year ago. A long standing attachment between the widow and her stepson soon ripened into love, and they decided that the fortune of the family would be best conserved by a union of the first and second generations.

Postmaster Robbed.

G. W. Fouts, Postmaster at Riverton, Ia., nearly lost his life and was robbed of all comfort, according to his letter, which says: "For 20 years I had chronic liver complaint, which led to such a severe case of jaundice that even my finger nails turned yellow; when my doctor prescribed Electric Bitters; which cured me and have kept me well for eleven years." Sure cure for Biliousness, Neuralgia, weakness and all Stomach, Liver, Kidney and Bladder derangements. A wonderful Tonic. At E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store. 50 cents.
